The ultimate networking event to discuss trails and outdoor recreational activities

March 24 10:30 am – 3:30 pm,
George Bothwell Library in Regina
(2965 Gordon Rd), Open to the Public,
Free to Attend

S U P P O R T E D B Y :

Every year, this can't-miss event attracts a diverse group of people who are passionate about Saskatchewan's trail network. While we reflect on the year that was for the STA and our diverse membership base, we also look to the future and discuss ways in which we can continue to improve the trail system in the province.

You will hear from trail administrators who are working tirelessly to maintain their trails and provide recreational opportunities for the public. You will meet the trailblazers who are doing incredible work to promote trails and physical activity. You will learn more about the national trail movement and how our province fits into the picture.

The AGM features a fantastic group of presenters and there's also an opportunity for interested persons to step forward and join our volunteer board of directors. Whether you're part of a trail group or just love the outdoors, we'd love to see you at the 2018 STA AGM.

Featuring great presentations...

Let's Build a Trail – Joe Milligan,
Recreation/Interpretive Specialist,
Ministry of Parks, Culture and Sport

Saskatchewan has thousands of kilometres of trails that can be used for snowmobiling, ATV'ing, hiking, cross-country skiing, backpacking, walking and paddling. Volunteers play a vital role in the initiating, building and maintaining the province's diverse trail network. This session will provide an overview of the process involved in creating the vision for a trail, from the construction to the necessity of volunteers to the celebrations that follow during the grand opening.

Trail Outings: Fun for the Whole Family –
Paul & Cambri Cutting, Travel Bloggers
<http://www.cuttingintoadventure.com>

Paul & Cambri Cutting love to explore Saskatchewan's trail network with their young daughter Vaeanna. As a young family in southern Saskatchewan that is always busy, the Cuttings have found that going on trail outings are a great way to stay active and spend quality time as a family. On the family's blog they share their love of the outdoors, tales of their authentic adventures and tips they learn along the way. In this presentation, you'll learn about how they plan great trail adventures that involve a toddler.
